

THAT LIBRARY QUESTION NEXT WEDNESDAY

A record breaking crowd is expected at the city council meeting next Wednesday evening when the matter of a tax levy for the maintenance of the library for the coming year will be settled.

The theatres, the music society, the art gallery and THE LIBRARY are CARMEL and it is unthinkable to cripple their service to save a few dimes. The library service should be IMPROVED instead of impaired. The library should be open on holidays and Sundays as all other libraries are.

The cost of Carmel's library is something entirely different from the Salinas library with which it has been compared as books in the Salinas library are read but twelve times while they average THIRTY-NINE TIMES in Carmel.

One of the best suggestions as to the library situation comes from Councilman Catlin who wants the library, wants it improved if possible BUT realizes that a firm hand must be kept on upkeep costs. Catlin suggests that the legislature be asked to create a library district taking in all the surrounding urban territory such as Hatton Fields, Carmel Woods, the Point, Highlands, etc. Taxes would be so small for each individual they would hardly be noticed, entitle all these extra residents to use the library, and yet give Carmel a library service equal to any in the state.

In any event, be at the meeting, but get the facts before you make any rash statements. As we have said before, let's improve if we can, but let's not lose a thing we already have.

THE PRICE WE MAKE OUR GREAT MEN PAY

No other country in the world exacts such a terrific price in vitality as we do from our great leaders. Our presidents enter office strong and vigorous and in a few months we see their faces lined with care. Only a few of them have lived longer than a few brief years after leaving office. And this is true in lesser public offices. Congressmen, governors, all alike pay for their shortened lives. Whatever we think of our efforts or how little we like them, let's realize that all of them are doing their best to give the

PACIFIC

LATEST NEWS

Latest news from the state capital tells us that Sunny Ralph is fighting in his last campaign—a campaign with death—and losing. "A penny for Jimmy" is not so funny now. Perhaps we didn't always agree with him but his passing will be sincerely mourned by all. And when we think of the sales tax in connection with "Sunny Jim" let's remember it is raising $4,000,000 a month to keep our schools open.

Dixwell E. Pierce, secretary of the state board of equalization, summed up the case in a radio address:

"Because of shortage in other state revenues, every penny of the sales tax, with the exception of an administrative expense which is less than two per cent, goes to the support of the California school system, resulting in an average decrease of at least $1 per hundred of assessed valuation on common property owners.

"Where would money come from if the sales tax were abandoned? Common property is already bearing an almost intolerable burden. Income taxes could not be expected to yield commensurate revenue."

Perhaps some better method of taxation and equal sharing of the burden may come up later, but at present we know of none better and California's educational system must not be allowed to go backward.

J. E. MITCHELL, CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF FIGHTS SALE OF LIQUOR TO MINORS

Defying all threats of political retaliation at the polls next August, J. E. Mitchell, police commissioner of Salinas and candidate for sheriff, has launched a vigorous drive against all places in Salinas that are selling liquor to boys and girls. "I am against the practice of liquor vendors selling liquor to children merely because they say they are of age when anyone can see they are not and I am going to see that the practice is stopped," Mitchell advised. Mitchell asked and has received the backing of the Salinas council in the drive and all violators' licenses will be revoked.

EXTREMELY GOOD PLAY
DANGEROUS CORNER

By J. F. B.

Unless I miss my guess, "Dangerous Corner" will go down in history as one of the best things ever done by the Community Players.

The way Gordon plays the

the light touch, the right way here, the breathless pause there, brings the whole into one beautiful pattern, lived, not just acted on the stage.

The play opens with a group of people in ordinary conversation, not dull or uninteresting, but building up the background. You learn that one of the firm of publishers was shot last October. Then cigarettes are passed, and comes the chance remark that throws the entire cast into an uproar. The truth is sought, and in that truth comes a most gripping, poignant unfolding, laying lives and souls bare.

Ruth Thompson, always a favorite, portrays Freda, her husband, Robert, being Lloyd Weer, who insists upon the truth uncovering things he would have been happier not knowing.

Paula Dougherty plays a very strong character in Olwen, upon whose chance remark the play is built.

Olga Fish takes the part of Maude Mockridge, a novelist, a guest of the publishers.

Mary Henderson, as Betty is the wife of Euel Labhard, who takes the part of Gordon. And Mr. Labhard, by the way, was called in at the last minute to take the part of Bud Mills, who was taken suddenly ill and had to go to a hospital for an operation. Mr. Labhard is a professional and only a professional could have handled the part as he did upon such short notice.

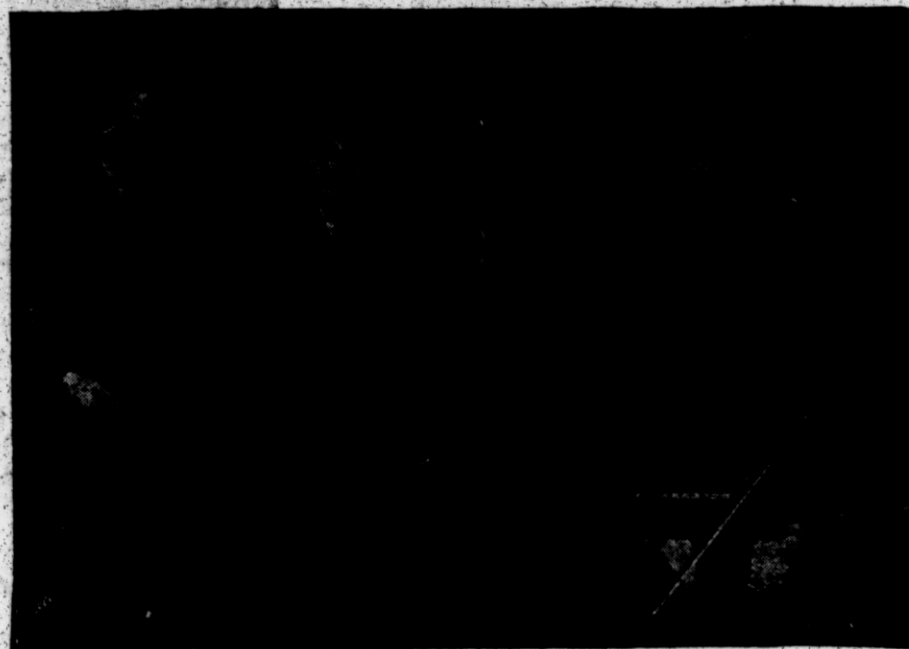

Byington Ford takes the part of Stanton, who objected so strenuously from the first to getting at the truth.

The play began at Denny-Watrous gallery Wednesday night for a four-night run and if you haven't seen it, you still have the opportunity Friday or Saturday night.

Seven Captains, headed by Mary Marble, chairman, have under them some seven lieutenants each, and these enthusiastic workers have divided the village into districts and are going from house to house, spreading the "glad tidings," Don't be surprised if Gwendolyn Stearns, Winifred Howe, Ann Greene, Laidlaw Williams, or Sidney Robertson or some other "fan" of the Orchestra appears

WOMAN HEARS NOISE AND FINDS PROWLER

Hearing a noise in her kitchen, Mrs. Blanchard of North Monte Verde investigated and was badly frightened to find a prowler there. The prowler was also frightened and jumped through the window by which he had entered, breaking several valuable pieces of pottery on a table.

On Mrs. Blanchard's description, one Luis Turango, 16, was picked up by the officers and on Tuesday he was taken to Salinas where he was left in custody of the probation officer, Ney Otis, who will hold him for trial before the juvenile court.

The boy is reported to have acknowledged petty thievery from cars.

MAN FOUND DEAD IN ROOM; NO FOUL PLAY

When John W. Ruick failed to show up at the Log Cabin Inn where he had been washing dishes, Chief of Police Gus Englund was notified and went to his room on the floor, dead, apparently from heart trouble. There were no evidences of foul play. He had been dead several hours.

The deceased had been in Carmel about three years and had been on the unemployed relief roll. He was about 50 years of age, a quiet man who had won the respect of all who knew him. He came without funds and at the time of his death had saved $100.

There were no letters nor records of any kind to give any idea of the man's past or location of relatives. The body was taken to Freeman's undertaking parlors and burial made from there this afternoon.

THEODORE NORMAN HERE TO JOIN PENHA QUARTET

Theodore Norman, Los Angeles violinist, who has been engaged to take the place of Kathleen Parlow in the Penha Quartet, arrived Tuesday evening of this week, and the four men of the Quartet are busily rehearsing daily in the "Gray Goose" on Casanova Street, which will house Mr. Linsley and Mr. Norman.

Kathleen Parlow, due to the many and steadily increasing demands upon her time in San Francisco, was unable to be in Carmel over the summer and hence could not go on playing in the Quartet. Mr. Penha and his colleagues are delighted to have secured young Theodore Norman who has just returned from three years' study in Europe with the greatest masters of the violin there. Mr. Norman has specialized in chamber music, having his own Quartet in Los Angeles and being more interested in that form of musical expression than in any other.

Mrs. D. L. Staniford spent Monday and Tuesday transacting business in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levinson and family will occupy the Gates cottage in Carmel valley for the summer months and will leave for that lovely spot at the close of school.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the heart and reins." These words from Psalms comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday in all Churches of Christ Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "For the word of God is quick, and powerful and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart," (Hebr. 4:12).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be included: "All we correctly know of Spirit comes from God, divine Principle, and is learned through Christ and Christian Science. If this Science has been thoroughly learned and properly digested, we can know the truth more accurately than the astronomer can read the stars or calculate an eclipse. Such institutions reveal whatever constitutes and perpetuates harmony, enabling one to do good, but not evil" (pp 84, 85.)

HOT WATER USEFUL IN HOME THE YEAR AROUND

It is an utter mistake to suppose that a constant supply of hot water is more useful to the household in winter than in summer.

In winter of course, warm baths serve not only to refresh and invigorate the system but also to prevent and cure colds. But in summer, also, they are obviously necessary. Their reaction is cooling to the overheated body, to say nothing of their cleansing effect.

It is a mistake to suppose that a constant supply of hot water is more useful to the household in winter than in summer. In winter of course, warm baths serve not only to refresh and invigorate the system but also to prevent and cure colds. But in summer, also, they are obviously necessary. Their reaction is cooling to the overheated body, to say nothing of their cleansing effect.

For these reasons the installation of an automatic gas water heater is urgently recommended to all households, big or little. It is efficient and safe. It operates automatically. It shuts off or turns on the gas as the water reaches or falls below the required temperature. This service can be installed upon easy terms and with natural gas for fuel inexpensive to operate.

DANGEROUS CORNER

BUT DON'T MISS IT

"Life has many dangerous corners," says Freda in the play of that name, "Dangerous Corners," with which the Community Players opened Wednesday night in the Denny-Watrous Gallery for a four night run, closing Saturday night, June 2.

"The 'Dangerous Corner' appeared when Robert suddenly insisted on the truth how Olwen had seen the 'cigarette box that played tunes' on the night that Martin shot himself. All this is brilliantly acted by actors who roles that their names in the cast have successfully played so many assure a splendid production. Olga Fish, Paula Dougherty, Mary Henderson, Ruth Thompson, Byington Ford, Lloyd Weer and Enel Labhard are the seven people who play the intense and emotional drama that takes place within one evening in the country house of the Chafffield's.

Don't miss seeing this exciting play of the Community Players in the Denny-Watrous Gallery before its close on Saturday night.

THEATER POSTERS ARE SHOWN AT GALLERY

Starting away back with the first production in 1909, there are now on display at the Seven Arts gallery posters from nearly all the plays presented by the Forest Theater during the past twenty-five years, this year marking the quarter-century milestone of that organization.

Only one play was presented the first year and the history of the theater can be traced by its advertisements.

Many well known artists contributed original designs, among whom was John Butler, star pupil of William Chase; Jessie Arms Botke, William Ritzschel, Arthur Hill Gilbert, George Seideneck, M. De Neale Morgan and Arthur Vachel.

Perry Newberry's art is shown in some very charming original wood cuts, and his work runs through the entire twenty-five years.

Herbert Heron as organizer, playwright, director and actor appears through the years, beginning when he organized the group and played the title role of David in 1909.

The exhibition will be open to the public each day from one to five until June 15 and the public is cordially invited to call and see the posters, along with a lot of paraphernalia which has been used in the various productions.

GEORGE E. STONE TO GIVE THREE LECTURES

George E. Stone, well known photographer, biologist and educator will give a series of three lectures at the Denny-Watrous Gallery in Carmel on the three successive Thursdays in June beginning June 7.

The first will be entitled "To Galapagos We Will Go." It is the record of two visits made to the islands in 1927 and 1931. The Galapagos are a group of volcanic islands which lie 500 miles west of Ecuador, exactly upon the equator. They are among the most remote and desolate of all spots on the globe and yet are full of interest and significance to the student of nature.

Thursday, June 14, Stone will lecture on "The Charm of England," illustrated with many slides of the cathedrals and the famous spots of beauty.

June 21, the lecture will be "The Spirit of Italy." This is the record of a six-months' auto tour of Italy during which Mr. Stone not alone photographed the beauties of the landscape but was privileged to go into the galleries of Florence and Rome and secure photographs of the greatest works of art.

Prices for the lectures are extremely moderate and a limited block of tickets has been set aside for school children at a greatly reduced price.

Judge Wood and F. O. Robbins drove to San Luis Obispo Sunday and returned home Monday. They attended a chess contest between northern and southern California. Judge Wood reports that the two sections tied, each winning twelve games and each making the same number of ties.

TIRES BORE BRUNT

OF 500-MILE RACE

SAYS A. C. GRIMSHAW

The story of how tires made possible new speeds and eliminated pit stops in the 500-mile International Sweepstakes at Indianapolis May 30 was told today by A. C. Grimshaw, Firestone dealer in this city. It was the 18th consecutive year Firestone tires have equipped the winning cars, but this year tires were more vital than ever before.

"The new fuel limit of 45 gallons meant that the drivers had to eliminate forced pit stops," Mr. Grimshaw said. "They had to have tires that could stand hours of terrific pounding. No other 500 miles of race or road test puts such a strain or responsibility on tires.

"Lap speeds: up to 120 miles an hour this year meant 150 miles per hour or faster on the straightaway. There is terrific outward thrust on the tires in negotiating the curves. The momentum of the cars as they dive into the turns brags an uncontrollable action that is called 'drifting,' by which the car, although headed in the right direction, tends to sweep over the embankments. It takes supreme skill and utmost strength of steel and rubber to avoid disaster.

"At such speeds, one would expect the tires to be almost entirely worn away. But inspection of a Firestone tire after it had gone the full 500 miles showed the amazing fact that there was very little sign of wear. The engineers have perfected tread stocks that withstand high speed and friction at almost fire heat caused by the tread grinding on the brick track.

"But even more important is an engineering feature embodied within the tire. It is the patented gum-dipping process by which the high stretch cords are soaked in liquid rubber, protecting them against internal friction which would cause destructive heat and deterioration. It also safety-locks the cords and gives greater adhesion and flexibility to the tire. At 120 miles an hour the centrifugal force in the tire is at least ten per cent and often much more and the tread would be thrown off were it not for this vital gum-dipping process which welds the tire into one strong cohesive unit.

"The same process is a protection for the motorists whose cars we equip with Firestone tires," Mr. Grimshaw concluded. "It means longer wear because it minimizes internal heat. It gives the new High Speed Tire for 1934 the greatest blowout protection of any tire made."

Dr. M. S. Anderson and family have taken the Brewer house at Third and Lincoln for the month of June.

Mrs. R. A. Kocher who has been occupying the L. N. Jones house for the winter, is leaving June 12.

C. S. Brown of Modesto has taken the Comings cottage on Monte Verde for July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henning of San Francisco are spending a part of their honeymoon at La Ribera hotel. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McFarland.

Mrs. K. Y. Saper, wife of Attorney Saper, came up from Beverly Hills for a short time at their home here. Her husband lives here but practices law in Monterey.

W. P. Dougherty, postmaster of Monterey, Mrs. Irene Cator, Carmel's postmistress, and Carmel Martin, chairman of the Democratic Central committee, attended a Democrat meeting at Bolada park, Hollister, Sunday.

Mayor and Mrs. James H. Thoburn returned Tuesday from a several days' stay at their ranch near Sonora. While in Sonora, Mr. Thoburn was a guest of the Sonora commercial club and made a speech before that body recommending Carmel as a place to come to get cooled off. The Thoburns will leave Saturday for a three-day stay in Los Angeles where they will take their children for a two months' visit with their grandmother.
